BROADWAY: — The little Parisian dancer, Leslie Caron, is all excited. For one thing, she ran away with exciting notices following the opening of her New York stage debut in Roland Petit's Ballet de Paris; and next, she is happy that her picture, "Lili" — has been selected as a 1953 "best" on most of the "10 Best" lists, and she herself has been named several times as a "best Actress." But to go on from there, when Edwin H. Knopf—producer of "Lili"—was recently in New York, she learned that he is to produce her next picture, "The Glass Slipper," the story of Cinderella, with the screen play by Helen Deutsch, who wrote the screen play of "Lili." More news is that for the palace ball scene, the studio is planning one of the most spectacular ballet sequences ever filmed. So it's "Hi Lili, Hi Lili, Hi Lo, Hi Leslie!"

HOLLYWOOD BLVD: — Lucille Ball, co-starring with Desi Arnaz in the comedy, "The Long, Long Trailer," says she knows a girl who wants to marry a sailor and rear admirals.

DEPT. OF CONFUSION:—Blond Lana Turner has gone and went brunette for her forthcoming picture, "Flame and the Flesh" and "Betrayed." Brunette Kathryn Grayson turned redhead for "Kiss Me Kate." Ann Blyth a natural brunette in "Rose Marie" becomes a blond for "The Student Prince." And platinum-gold Jane Powell turns brunette for "Seven Brides for Seven Brothers." Everybody feel all right?

FRIGID ZONE DISPATCH: — Dewey Martin, featured in "Tennessee Champ," tells about the eskimo's reply to his jealous wife, "I do NOT close my eyes and imagine I'm rubbing noses with Marilyn Monroe."

HARD ON SOLE MATES:—Gene Kelly figures that the six dances he will do in the forthcoming musical, "Brigadoon," will give him a total of 77 dance numbers since he came to Hollywood eleven years ago. Figuring, as he does, an average of six weeks rehearsing per picture, that adds up to just a week short of a year and a half of dancing. Hum . . . a year and a half holding in his arms such bundles of pulchritude as Cyd Charise, Leslie Caron, Vera-Ellen and Rita Hayworth. Hey! Should the man complain?

BEVERLY HILLS: — Desi Arnaz, co-starring with Lucille Ball in "The Long, Long Trailer," says that when the picture was finished he felt like the fellow who bought a house trailer so he'd have a place to live while looking for a place to park.

THE FARMER'S DAUGHTER: — Keenan Wynn was telling the story of the farmer's daughter to Shelley Winters during the filming of "Tennessee Champ." "You see," Keenan began, "the farmer said, 'Daughter, come in the house, I see a traveling salesman coming down the road.' The Farmer's Daughter replied, 'That ain't no salesman, pa—that's a deer hunter.' 'Well,' 'grunted the farmer,' 'come in the house and bring the cow with you.'"

CULVER CITY, CALIF.:—News here is that as a result of his successful starring debut in "The Student Prince," Edmund Purdom will be given what is known as a terrific concentrated build-up. He is penciled in for a co-starring role with Ava Gardner in "The Prodigal," but to precede that on the shooting schedule he will star with Jane Powell in "Athena," a comedy with music, and following that, will star in "The King's Thief," playing a highwayman who says "Stand and deliver!" in the times of Charles II.

SANTA MONICA BLVD: — Howard Keel, next to be seen in "Rose Marie," tells about a Hollywood motorcycle cop who stopped a male star, then spouted most of the traffic code—and the violations he had committed verbatim. "Very good," sneered the actor, "and how are you on the Gettysburg address?" The actor was fined four score and seven bucks.

* * *

NOTICE:—In case you find a mistake in this column, please remember that it was put there for somebody's benefit. We try to please everybody, and some people are always looking for mistakes.

JOTS AND DOTS: — Walter Pidgeon, who scored in "Executive Suite" gets a wonderful role as Elizabeth Taylor's father in "Babylon Revisited," from the F. Scott Fitzgerald story. . . . Esther Williams reported to the Studio this week to begin water routine rehearsals for "Jupiter's Darling," and there's a rumor that there will be twelve elephants in the routine. . . . "Dianne De Poytiers," John Erskine's unfinished manuscript based upon the life of the lady who ruled the heart of Henri II of France, will be an important all-star picture. . . . Stewart Granger and Grace Kelly will co-star in "Green Fire," a story of the South American emerald mines. . . . Robert Taylor, Eleanor Parker and the "Valley of the Kings" company moved to Playa del Rey for several days filming since their two month's shooting on location in Egypt. . . . Spencer Tracy leaves for Scotland during the summer to star in "Highland Fling" adapted from the hilarious best-selling novel, "Digby." . . . Recommended reading: "Deep Currents," a pot-pourri of short stories by William Ornstein. . . . Bessie Love, famed star in first Academy Award winning musical, "Broadway Melody of 1939," returns to the screen for a role in "Beau Brummell" with Elizabeth Taylor and Stewart Granger, now being filmed in England. . . . Bert Lahr, in "Rose Marie," announces, "A bridegroom is a wolf who is paying off for his whistles."

Love Runs Rampant on Warner Lot

BURBANK, Calif. — A boy-chases-girl scene that used four movie sets and started on one sound stage and ended on another was filmed this week by director Jack Donohue for the CinemaScope production "Lucky Me."

Various locations of the sets for romantic pursuit made the four-stop gallop necessary.

The flight of Doris Day from the arms of Robert Cummings started in a hotel kitchen set on Stage 12, moved to an adjoining alleyway on the same stage, then while runners caught their breaths, Donohue shifted the company to a park on the back lot where stars hurdled hedges and circled trees. Race wound up at a swimming pool on Stage 22—where Cummings catches her.

Former Film Stars Create Atmosphere

BURBANK, Calif. — In past years in Hollywood, working as an extra player was regarded as one of the first steps toward stardom. Now, extra ranks have become more a field for former stars than for hopeful beginners.

Among a group of 400 atmosphere players called to work in a crowd scene for "A Star Is Born," CinemaScope musical co-starring Judy Garland and James Mason, were such one-time silent screen greats as Franklyn Farnum, Jack Perrin, Gertrude Astor, Jack Mower, Philo McCullough, Creighton Hale and Nina Cunard.

How Famous Orchestra Leader Got His Start

"I got my start in music with your Course. How easy it is to learn to read notes and play this 'teach-yourself' way! You did so much for daughters"—Lawrence Welk.

Amazes Friends

"In a few weeks I could play several pieces. Everyone was amazed, especially friends who had had lessons for years and whom it took 6 months to a year to play simple pieces."
Mrs. J. P. Perry, Princeton, W. Va.

NO TEDIOUS PRACTICING OF BORING SCALES AND EXERCISES REQUIRED. Even if you don't know a single note now, you'll "start right in on pieces."
